4.1 PRESENTATION: IRONMAORI - SPIN CYCLE & SWIM CLASSES IN TURANGI

Author: Raeleen Rihari, Democratic Services Support Officer

Authorised by: Tina Jakes, Democracy & Community Engagement Manager

PURPOSE

IronMāori (Te Timatanga Ararau Trust) representatives Heather Skipworth and Lee Grace will be in attendance to present information regarding establishing bike spin cycle and swimming classes to support Tuwharetoa IronMāori 2018 participants.

DISCUSSION

IronMāori will again partner with the Tuwharetoa Maori Trust Board (TMTB) to run the 'IronMāori Taupo-nui-a-Tia' event in March 2018.

IronMāori has secured funding from the Te Puni Kōkiri 'Move the Māori Nation' initiative to establish bike spin cycle and swim classes in Turangi (for whanau Māori). Once established, local tutors will be sought to take over the sessions and, management of the programme handed over to whanau. All funding will remain with the managing roopu (group).

IronMāori will provide free spin bikes, music and tutor/s. Participants will pay a small fee of $4 per session for either spin cycle or swim class to support tutor costs.

IronMāori would also like to invite the Community Board to join with them and the TMTB to support training for Tuwharetoa participants.

RECOMMENDATION(S)

That the Turangi/Tongariro Community Board receives the information on 'IronMaori - Moving the Maori Nation' and IronMaori / Te Timatanga Ararau Trust representatives Heather Skipworth and Lee Grace be thanked for their presentation.
